
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

February 2019

To: Dorian Dodd

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (2019). To: Dorian Dodd. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/568>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Dear John Allen,

It's been a long time since I've seen or heard from you, and when I met your mother a couple of weeks ago in Parsons on a chorus trip I've been wanting to write you, but I've been having to study for mid-term exams. I think I came out alright. I never made below C in any subject.

Did your mother tell you about our acquaintance? It was really surprized. Each member of the chorus was introducing himself, and when services were over she caught me and told me who she was. I also had no idea that Bro. Brumley was your Uncle. He does look very much like you though.

I really do like it here, and I'm learning alot, but it's so far from home that sometimes I get very homesick. This is the finest school ever. I am majoring in music this semester and next semester I plan to take Bible and music. I'm taking Genesis and Exodus, English Comp, Sight singing, Biology, Chorus, Speech, & Music for Song Leading.

This week Bro. Dixon is holding the Fall Gospel Meeting this year. Sunday about 30 of us went around town and invited everyone to come to it, but also at this time the Baptist Church is having their meeting too which gives him competition. Wish you could be here.

Lots of luck in school, and I hope to see you again sometime. Write to me soon.

Lots of prayers to all
Dorian